Sculptors in the making: A series of Creative Arts workshops has been organised at Harwood Island Public School for children "with a natural ability or great interest in the arts". Last Friday, Woodford Island Year 6 student Reece Munro and Harwood Island Year 6 student Meagan Cheney took part in the sculpture workshop run by tutor Dianne Webber. Next Friday, May 28, Penny Stuart will host a lead lighting workshop while, on June 11, John Giese will conduct a session on cartooning. The last workshop in the series will be hosted by Joanna Terpstra on June 25 on drawing. Schools involved in the inter-district activity are Harwood, Palmers Island, Chatsworth Island, Yamba Public and Woodford Dale.
